COOK ADMITS THEFT OF $100 AND AUTOMOBILE

Harry Louis Stevens, 32, a cook at a Gettysburg restaurant, Wednesday, posted $1,000 bail to appear for sentence court after pleading guilty before Justice of the Peace John H. Baschore to charges of larceny of an auto, larceny of money and operating an auto without the consent of the owner.

According to state police, who investigated, Stevens took $100 and an auto from an 18-year-old high school girl after friendship with the girl's brother.

Took Money From Purse

About 10:30 o'clock on the morning of March 9, Stevens went to the Clapper home when all members of the family were absent, police said. He is said to have stolen $100 from a pocketbook in the kitchen. The money was the property, police said, of Betty Lou Clapper, 18, a Biglerville High School student who is employed nights at a tile factory. Betty Lou had just received an income tax rebate and had that money together with other funds saved from regular pay checks.

After removing the money, police said, Stevens then took a 1942 auto owned by Miss Clapper. Suspecting Stevens, Miss Clapper brought the charges against him before Justice Baschore and state police arrested Stevens on Baltimore St. Tuesday. They said that he had only a few cents at the time.

No Interest

Battlefield guides are not permitted to wave or flag down motor vehicles in their solicitation for guided tours of the Battlefield.

Recently a guide, working at the station at the south end of town, is reported to have violated this rule but his solicitation for a tour was to no avail. The motor vehicle he "flagged" down turned out to be a hearse. The driver declined the proffered service and the "fellow in the back seat" didn't seem to be interested. In fact he hid under cover.

Officials of the Park Service office are investigating the alleged violation.

Here And There

News Collected At Random

Charles H. "Chad" Huber III, three-year-old, blue-eyed, tow-headed son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Huber II, York St., Biglerville, believes he is the luckiest and happiest kid in Biglerville. He is also firmly convinced that Richard "Dick" Fink, his neighbor, is the greatest fellow in the world. He's justified in thinking so, too.

A few days ago "Chad" tired of his daily routine of eating, sleeping and playing with his toys. While casting about for "new fields" of activity his eyes feasted on the glimmering, home-made hot-house of Mr. Fink. "That's really something to work on," said "Chad" to himself.

When his mother relaxed her vigilance "Chad" went to work. Dragging a wooden mallet he sauntered over to Mr. Fink's hot-house and bashed in 35 of the 36 window panes. Then he returned home.

When his Daddy returned home and learned of the "destruction" he called on Mr. Fink, apologized for his son's mischievousness and offered to replace the broken panes.

Mr. Fink thanked him, smiled pleasantly, looked at the devastation and said: "Let's go out and kick in the 36th pane."

P. S.: It is not known whether "Chad" ate his next meal standing up.

P. S. No. 2: Here's our salute to Mr. Fink.

The world over, railroads woo passenger traffic, sometimes by novel methods. The Italian State Railways recently initiated a "go anywhere" ticket for foreign travelers. This travelers' treasure permits its holder to ride on any train in Italy, stop over at will and pick up the journey on any other train without extra charge. At present only foreigners can buy this type of ticket. In Norway, an Oslo travel agency offers free language lessons to Norwegians who sign up for group tours to Italy and France.

In Ireland, the "radio trains" innovated four years ago are popular attractions. On these all-day excursion trains, running between Dublin and Killarney and Dublin and Connemara, passengers are entertained over a public address system in a variety of ways. They listen to recorded music, may join in community singing and hear travelogue commentary on places of interest along the route. The cost of a ticket on these trains, run on special days, includes rail fare, seat reservation, lunch and tea. In

ANNUAL EASTER SEAL CAMPAIGN IS OPENED TODAY

The annual Easter Seal sale by the Adams County Society for Crippled Children and Adults opened today and will continue for one month, closing on Easter Sunday.

Russel S. Hackman, vice president of the county society and chairman of the Easter Seal committee, said that 5,464 letters were mailed today carrying the appeal for funds to individuals and organizations in all parts of the county.

The appeal is for funds "to help Larry Kepner and a hundred other physically handicapped boys and girls in Adams County." Envelopes are enclosed for mailing contributions to Miss Elizabeth Evans, assistant treasurer of the society. Checks may be made payable to the Adams County Society for Crippled Children and Adults.

Letter Out With Seals

Mr. Hackman's letter follows: "Your opportunity to help Larry Kepner and a hundred other physically handicapped boys and girls in Adams County is here again."

"It's Easter Seal time—time to supply the Adams County Society for Crippled Children and Adults with the funds to carry on—and expand its program—during 1954."

"Larry soon will have to have a new set of costly artificial limbs and scores of other crippled children in our county will need shoes, braces, artificial limbs and transportation to hospitals and clinics. Next summer there will be an opportunity for crippled boys and girls from this county to go to special camps for six weeks—if there's money to send them."

"The only way the Crippled Children's Society has to get those funds is through the sale of Easter Seals."

"In the last year, the society initiated the move that led to the addition of a physical therapist to the Warner Hospital staff. And society funds will make his services available to needy, handicapped kiddies throughout the county."

Several hundred boys and girls in county schools need help with speech defects and a 1954 project of the society is to set up a plan by which a special instructor, or therapist, can help those youngsters overcome their speech handicaps.

"Let your gift to this work help you to a Happy Easter." Coin containers have been placed in a number of business places to afford an additional opportunity for the public to contribute to the help of crippled children in this county.

TWO COUNTIANS MEET IN VIENNA

Two Adams Countians, classmates-graduates of York Springs High School in 1950, recently met in Vienna, when one of them was spending a 3-day pass in the Austrian metropolis. The photograph they had taken together at that time accompanies this article.

Pfc. William V. Riley, son of Mr. and Paul C. Riley, Gardner's, is shown at the left in the photograph and Pfc. Larry LaRue, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jerry H. LaRue, York Springs, is on the right.

Riley had been given a 3-day pass to Vienna from Trieste for being selected "Soldier of the Week." While there he met LaRue, his classmate. They had graduated together and were known as "Two of the Big Four" at York Springs High. Prior to being induced into the Army, LaRue was employed at Olmsted Air Force Base, Middletown, and Riley was employed at the Mount Holly Builders Supply Co., Mount Holly Springs. LaRue is presently serving as a military policeman in Vienna, with the crack Military Police stationed there.

Riley is serving as a chief movements control specialist in the office of the TRUST Transportation officer, in the Free Territory of Trieste.

Eddie Fox Is Coming Home On Saturday

Eddie Fox, 17-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Grayson Fox, Orrtanna R. D., who has spent most of the last three years in hospital beds and wheel chairs, is coming home to stay on Saturday.

His parents have been notified by the hospital of the University of Pennsylvania at Philadelphia to be at the hospital at 11 a.m. Saturday to take Eddie home.

Eddie, who had to learn to walk all over again, now is able to get about well on crutches and hospital surgeons, who gave Eddie nearly 200 blood transfusions and scores of skin grafts, say it is only a matter of time until Eddie is able to put aside the crutches.

He was home last at Christmas time for a few days.

Eddie was severely burned July 26, 1950, while playing near a fire with a brother and a neighbor youth. The brother died of his burns and little hope was held for Eddie with more than a third of his body badly seared by the flames. His long convalescence began in the Warner Hospital and then he was moved to Philadelphia where skin grafts were continued with frequent blood transfusions required. The Red Cross in Philadelphia and Gettysburg helped secure donors for the nearly 200 transfusions.

Sister And Dad Deliver Papers For Stricken Boy

The paper route of 12-year-old Raymond Kerrigan Jr., R. 4, is being maintained by his sister and father until "Tony," as he is nicknamed recovers sufficiently to resume delivery in Hunterstown.

Stricken about four months ago with rheumatoid arthritis, the youngster, now a patient at the Harrisburg Polyclinic Hospital, is able to move his right leg only slightly, following an operation to permit even the partial use of the knee.

While his illness is a subject for worry—"Tony's" main request to his parents has been "keep my paper route."

He began the route only a short time before he was stricken. He was saving his money for an education. So far he has about $30 in the fund.

His sister, Lorna Mae, aged 15, came to the route's rescue and delivered the papers daily until about a week ago when she became ill with what was diagnosed

EXCHANGE CLUB WILL DEVELOP 2 PLAY AREAS

Members of the Exchange Club who plan to clear two play areas—one in the northern part of the town and one in the eastern section—on Saturday afternoon invited fathers of youngsters in those areas to help with the work.

Donald Peters, chairman of the play lot committee of the Exchange Club, said club members will gather at 1 p.m. Saturday on the Joseph E. Codori property to the east of "Winters Row," the row of houses on the east side of N. Stratton St., north of E. Stevens St.

When work is finished there the group will move to a lot along the north side of Fourth St. between Hanover and York Sts. where Glenn C. Bream has donated space for a play area. John Codori is in charge of developing that lot.

See-saws, Swings, Sand

Eight see-saws, eight swings and a sliding board eight feet high will be placed at each play area for use of children under 12 years of age who do not have ready access to the Recreation Park at the southwest corner of town. A number of sand boxes also will be placed at each play area.

The equipment is being made or purchased by the Exchange Club as a community project.

Volunteers are asked to bring rakes when they report on Saturday.

FIREMEN KEPT BUSY ON CALLS

Gettysburg, Emmitsburg and Fairfield fire companies all had complications about 4:40 o'clock Wednesday afternoon.

Fairfield was fighting a grass fire at the Earl McLaughlin property about that time. One of its trucks mired and Fairfield called Gettysburg for assistance as the wind was sending the grass fire toward buildings.

As Gettysburg was preparing to go to Fairfield's rescue, the local fire siren sounded for a grass fire near Dr. C. H. Heide's home on the Table Rock Rd.

Fortunately Fairfield almost simultaneously reported Gettysburg would not be needed—the Fairfield situation was clearing.

Gettysburg headed for its fire, just as the Emmitsburg Fire truck was rounding Lincoln Square. Chief of Police Jack Bartlett "shooed" the Emmitsburg fire truck to the side, just like all other vehicles. It was the first time, he said, that he had ever caused a fire truck to surrender the right of way to a fire truck.

About 6 p.m. Gettysburg was called to a grass fire near WGCT, along the Harrisburg Rd.

Good Old Days

To illustrate the tremendous increase in the cost of lumber during the last half century, a western lumber dealer recently sent photostat copies of a bill for lumber to his customers. One was received by M. C. Jones, of the Stouck-Reaser Company, Inc., Gettysburg.

The bill, dated October 12, 1896, is from the Union Lumber Co., San Francisco, Calif., to a Noyo, Cal., firm, for 706,868 feet of California Redwood lumber at a total cost of $10,881.26. This represents a price of a little more than one and one-half cents a foot. The shipment would total about 32 carloads.

If the same lumber was purchased today it would cost more than a million and half dollars.

GOOD EVENING
There are no hopeless situations, there are only men who have grown hopeless about them.

Adams County spent $7,000 more than it took in during 1953 but ended the year with a $68,020.92 balance, according to the financial report submitted by the county auditors to the state.

The report for the county shows that it had an actual income of $201,214.34 during 1953 and spent $208,801.33. But it began the year with a $75,767.91 balance.

Total receipts, including the balance from 1952, were $277,002.25. Income included $150,590.60 in current taxes, $14,775.85 from prior years' taxes, $18,831.49 from fines and forfeits and $2,361.49 departmental earnings. In addition $14,674.91 was received in the form of non-revenue receipts.

Same For Institution District Expenditures included: Administrative, $67,443.75; judicial $40,764.79; corrections, $61,809.74; miscellaneous, $38,783.05, and interest, $180.

Similarly, in the institution district fund, the county dipped into the balance for about $35,000, spending about that much more than the actual income during the year. However the district started 1953 with a balance of $90,451.12, and despite the expenditure of $35,000 more than the year's income, ended the year with a balance of $55,952.71.

The county's debt situation was revealed, as previously announced, at just about the point where the county, for the first time in years, will be free of debt in the near future. The county paid off $13,000 in outstanding bonds, and has on hand $13,267.71 in the fund to meet the approximately $20,000 debt remaining.

Breakdown On Expenses

The report for the county fund shows that all of the departmental expenses, $2,361.49, came from the sheriff's office. Of the taxes secured, $128,928.24 was from real estate and $21,662.36 from personal property taxes.

$12,371.90 was listed as commissioners' expenses including $6,453.44 salaries of commissioners, $4,391.70 salary of clerks. The rest went for expenses, association dues, etc.

Operation of the court house cost $5,081.57 of which $2,009.14 went for the janitor's salary and $1,639.83 for fuel, light and water. Repairs totaled $603.45. Elections cost $11,339.10 of which $6,198 paid the election officials, $2,412.67 was for inside registrars and office help, $469.60 for advertising and $1,980

COUNTY CHURCH WILL CONSTRUCT NEW BUILDING

The congregation of St. John's Evangelical Lutheran Church, Abbotstown, will observe the Sixty-fifth anniversary of the construction of its present church by breaking ground for a new Christian Education Building on March 28. The Sunday School will meet at 1:30 p.m., the worship service at 2:45 o'clock, with the breaking of the ground at the close of the service. Rev. Dr. George Berkeimer, Secretary of the Central Pennsylvania Synod of the United Lutheran Church in America, will be the speaker.

In addition to the worship service for adults, a meeting of the children will be held in the Parish Hall at 2:45 p.m., with a special program of music and motion pictures. Both groups will unite for the service at the close of the hour.

The Rev. L. J. Karschner, pastor of the church, said that this will be only one of several times the congregation has set itself to the task of building during its history which reaches across nearly 200 years.

Started In 1770
Although the records are somewhat meagre, they show that the first church was erected in 1770. This building was destroyed by fire and the congregation on June 11, 1830, laid the cornerstone for the second building, a brick edifice on the site of the present church. In 1889, the present church was erected, the corner stone being laid in June of that year. The dedication took in 1890.

The new building, designed by C. S. Buchart and Associates of York, will be forty feet wide and seventy feet long, and contain facilities for the Junior, Primary, Beginners and Nursery departments with a room for the mothers of small children. The Junior department will be constructed as a children's chapel.

The basement, which may not be completed until later, will eventually become a game room for use by the various groups in the congregation since the building will be placed between the church and parsonage, both of which are red brick, the new edifice will be of the same construction. The firm of I. H. Crouse & Sons, of Littlestown, will be the general contractor.

The Council estimates the cost of the building, architectural services, furnishings for the building and promotion of the fund-raising effort will be between $45,000 and $50,000.

WILL SUPPORT "PLAN" TO BEAT UNEMPLOYMENT

By J. FRANK TRAGLE
WASHINGTON (AP)—Secretary of the Interior Douglas McKay today assured leaders of the Pennsylvania hard coal industry that he will support any "economically feasible" program to lick the anthracite region's unemployment problem.

McKay spoke at the start of a closed-door conference of coal company executives, congressmen from Pennsylvania's hard coal area and Interior Department representatives.

After McKay left, the meeting was conducted by Asst. Secretary Felix E. Wormser, who was accompanied by J. J. Forbes, director of the U. S. Bureau of Mines.

Recognizes Value
McKay said the department recognizes the importance of anthracite in the economy and defense plans of the nation and that he had become acquainted with the problems of the industry and the communities during a visit to Scranton last fall.

McKay, whose remarks were made available to reporters later, said:

"I do not have the authority, nor do I wish to tell you how to run your business. I need your help and you need our help. I can assure you that any program that you recommend, any suggestion that you make, will be given careful study and if economically feasible I will try to carry it out. I hope that this meeting will be more than a round table discussion."

Need Concrete Plan
"We need something concrete, something definite. We need a program to avert immediate disaster and we need a long-range program that will avert future disasters. We want to help. We believe with your help and with your wise counsel we can help."

"The one thing that impressed me on my visit to the anthracite region was the quiet optimism of the people. With that spirit and with the determined cooperation of every group involved I am confident that anthracite can and will be strengthened."

SAYS 51 DRAFTED DOCTORS WON'T BE OFFICERS

by EDWIN B. HAAKINSON

WASHINGTON (AP)—Secretary of Defense Wilson said today the armed services have 51 drafted doctors and dentists who have been denied commissions because of security questions.

"We'll discharge them before we'll commission them," he told senators.

Wilson said the Army could give dishonorable discharges to Communists found in uniform but hesitates to do so without court martial trials.

Top Pentagon Officials
Wilson led a group of top Pentagon officials, including Secretary of the Army Stevens, before the Senate Armed Services Committee to tell how they are handling problems of Communist and subversive infiltration.

In the background was the roaring dispute between Secretary Stevens and Army Counsel John G. Adams, on the one hand, and Sen. McCarthy (R-Wis.) and his chief counsel, Roy Cohn, on the other over McCarthy's hunting for Reds in the Army.

TV Cameras There
Anticipation that the Stevens-McCarthy dispute might come up brought out such a large crowd of spectators that Chairman Saltonstall (R-Mass.) shifted the session from the committee's own hearing room to the larger Senate caucus room. The latter room seats about 250.

Television and news reel cameras were spotted on the witnesses. Wilson, reading a prepared statement, said defense officials welcomed a chance to discuss "the vital problem of dealing with Communists."

"This question affects the morale, the effectiveness and the prestige of the armed services," he said.

43 DWELLINGS BUILT IN 1953; COST $439,950

Forty-three dwellings were constructed during 1953 at a cost of $439,950 in the four Adams county boroughs, according to a report from the state Department of Labor and Industry.

The report shows that Gettysburg, East Berlin, McSherrystown and New Oxford, the only boroughs listed as issuing building permits, granted approval to 175 separate construction plans involving work totaling $791,921, during 1953.

Of that number 43 permits were for dwellings, and 22 permits for non-residential building on which $163,696 was expended.

Building Activity
The report also shows considerable renovation and alteration to existing structures in the four communities. Eighty-eight permits were granted for $49,875 worth of renovations on dwellings, and 21 permits for $157,200 worth of alterations on non-residential structures.

The figures represent only a portion of the amount of new construction and alterations throughout the county. Most boroughs and townships do not require building permits. There is no check, other than the assessment roles, of such work. Littlestown, which had a large number of new homes built in 1953, is not included in the report. Possibly, a majority of the new homes during the year were constructed outside towns in the townships. One of the most rapidly expanding areas, Midway, in Conewago Twp., is among those not included in the list.

East Berlin Breakdown
East Berlin issued 27 permits for $58,850 worth of work, the report shows. Of that amount, seven were dwellings, valued at $54,000, nineteen were for dwelling alterations valued at $3,650, and one was for an installation valued at $200.

Gettysburg issued 93 permits valued at $563,811, of which 21 were for new dwellings worth $216,450, and 18 for new non-residential buildings worth $135,836.

Also, in Gettysburg alterations costing $31,525 were made to 34 residences and changes valued at $135,000 were made to 20 non-residential buildings.

McSherrystown Permits
At McSherrystown, 36 permits were granted for work valued at $128,100. Of that amount, 10 were for dwellings worth $98,500; two were for non-residential buildings valued at $17,500; 23 were for alterations to residences at a cost of $9,900, and one was for alterations to a non-residential structure, at a cost of $2,200.

New Oxford granted 19 permits for $41,160 worth of construction. Five were for new dwellings costing $26,000; 12 for alterations to residences at a cost of $4,800 and two for construction on non-residential buildings valued at $10,360.

Clay, former military governor of the U.S. Zone of occupied Germany, is now chairman of the board of the Continental Can Co. He is 57 and a native of Marietta, Ga.

WILSON DENIES ARMY CODDLES COMMUNISTS

WASHINGTON (P)—Secretary of Defense Wilson denied today the Army is "coddling Communists," and declared he has "absolute and complete confidence" in Secretary of the Army Stevens.

Testifying before the Senate Armed Services Committee, Wilson also said he has confidence in John G. Adams, the Army's general counsel, "as far as I know" about him.

Wilson, under questioning by Sen. Kefauver (D-Tenn), said too that no case of Communist or subversive infiltration in the armed forces had been exposed by any congressional committee that had not been previously known to defense officials.

By indirectness, this disputed contention by Sen. McCarthy (R-Wis) that his investigations subcommittee had dug out subversives unknown to authorities.

Senators raised the questions of "coddling" and other words and phrases McCarthy has used while Wilson was before them on another matter.

The primary reason for his appearance before the committee was to discuss proposed changes in the doctor draft law.

$42,000 Lutheran Church Dedicated At New Oxford: Dedication of the new $42,000 edifice of the First Evangelical
Lutheran church, New Oxford, of which the Rev. George E.
Sheffer is pastor, took place at 10 o'clock Sunday morning (March 18).

Rev. M. R. Hamsher, Mechanicsburg, president of the West Pennsylvania Synod, preached the sermon at the morning service. In the afternoon the Rev. Dr. Herbert C. Alleman, of the Lutheran Theological Seminary here, was the preacher. Sunday evening Dr. A. R. Wentz, of the local theological seminary, was the speaker.

Special services will be held each evening this week.

The council of the First Lutheran Church comprises M. G. Colestock, C. L. Eicholtz, R. W. Livingston, Lloyd Stock, William McClain, Harry Emler, John H. Wolf, Luther Orndorff, John R. Wagner and Guy Klingel.

The building committee comprises E. C. Livingston, Amos Little, R. M. Baugher, Dr. Wilbur Miller, Frank Beshore, A. P. Markel, H. Bender Millar, Clair Lookingbill and Harry Wildasin.

High Opera Wins Plaudits Of
Huge Crowd: Effectively enacted and well presented, "Riding Down the Sky," a two-act opera, was given by the Gettysburg high school glee club in the high school auditorium Friday evening.

Special mention should be made of Miss Virginia Jones as "Carmelita," the heroine, and Merville Zinn as "Joshua Scroggins."

John Rosenstengel, Paul Anzenberger, Betty Swope and George Amick were particularly pleasing, as were Robert Williams, Stanley Hull, Kathryn Gitt, Richard Fox and Mary Jane Appler.

The opera was under the direction of Miss Dorothy Brindle. Assisting was Miss Rhelda Green who directed the dances. The marine drill was under the supervision of George Forney. Edwin Longenecker directed the orchestra.

Between acts a group of spirituals were sung by the Misses Catherine Stanton, Viola Clay, Dorothy Stanton, Margaret Thomas and Cora Stanton.

David and Druid Deitch gave a short pantomime during the intermission that was well received.

Victor Palmer Receives First Bonus Check: The first state bonus check came to Gettysburg this morning and Victor A. Palmer, 402 South Washington street, was the recipient. Palmer, who served 11 months during the world war, received a check for $110, $10 for each month he was in the army.

Pennsylvania began paying its $50,000,000 bonus to its former servicemen Thursday. Check No. 1 went to a gray-headed veteran of 86 years, who fought in the battle of Gettysburg, Lt. Henry Melchior Muhlenberg Richards, of Lebanon. Adams county veterans who served during the world war are expected to receive in excess of $100,000 as their share of the state's bonus. There are more than 1,000 war veterans residing in Adams county.

Seminary Bequeathed $450,000 By 86 Year Old Charles Cronhardt: The Gettysburg Lutheran Theological Seminary today received official notification from Francis A. Michel, Baltimore attorney, that the local institution had been named the beneficiary in one half of the estate of the late Charles Cronhardt Jr., 80 year old Baltimore resident, who died March 9.

The bequest will "not exceed $450,000" according to the provisions of Mr. Cronhardt's will although the estate is estimated to be close to one million dollars.

Officials at the seminary and the college this morning said they were not acquainted with the late Charles Cronhardt. He never attended Gettysburg college or seminary, and is not known in local church circles.

A part of the bequest to the seminary is to go for the construction of a statue of Martin Luther on the seminary campus.

Michael L. Eisenreich, a friend of the late Mr. Cronhardt, said that the Baltimorean decided to leave a fund as a memorial to his mother and father, and that he was impressed with the work of the local

Today's Talk

By GEORGE MATTHEW ADAMS
NEAR-BY FOLKS

In the course of a lifetime we become acquainted with many people, many of whom become very near and dear to us. Out of the large number, however, but a mere handful become intimate friends, and this number oftentimes is scattered far and wide. We see some of them only occasionally and after long intervals. But they remain in our world. They are near-by in our thoughts and prayers.

We can communicate with this small group by direct letters and through others, but it is best and most inspiring to keep in touch with these far and long separated ones by letter—which we are prone not to do. But after these are gone from us in life we experience a closed circuit. Our opportunity for contact is over.

I often wonder what we would be without these near-by folks of ours who grow more precious to us as we advance in life. I know that I am often neglectful of these, and to my great loss, but the fact that they are still in the world is always comforting. We are only deserv-ing of those whom we carry daily within our hearts!

For years I corresponded with a very fine man in Australia whom I had never met, and one day I received a letter from his son that he was no longer living—and so an unseen friend passed forever from among my near-by friends. I have always been glad that I kept that friendship green and alive.

Life is such a brief affair that we can't have too many of these near-by friends to give us cheer when we need it, and a spiritual warmth that we all so much lack in this work-a-day world. I think friend, who follows us around, always wanting to remain near us, no matter what our problems or troubles. I think he senses them, and wants to remain near-by!

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "The Waste Of Noise."

Just Folks

MAN AND THE ANT
An ant hill seems a busy place
As in and out its tenants race,
But neither what they do nor why

The slightest notion of have I.

Look to the ant, the sages say,
And be industrious as they.
I've often looked, but tell I can't
Why man should imitate the ant.

I've seen him struggling with a twig
That was himself three times as big.
He had some reason, I suppose,
But what it was nobody knows.

Were I a hint for youth to pen
'Twould be to tell them: Look to men!
Observe the good and truly great
And try their ways to imitate.

If you would know the right from wrong,
Why some are weak and others strong,
How best your life to shape and plan,
Forget the ant and look to man.

NEW OFFER TO SETTLE STRIKE IS PRESENTED

HARRISBURG (P)—A new wage proposal to end a six-week strike against the Valley Transportation Co. was presented the firm's union employees today.

The new offer by the company, employing 80 drivers and mechanics on about 13 lines between Harrisburg and suburban West Shore communities, was drawn up last night. It was the result of several weeks of informal meetings between company and union representatives.

Terms of the new offer were not disclosed.

Local 1377, Amalgamated Assn. of Street, Electric Railway and Motor Coach Employees of America (AFL), was called to act upon the proposal today.

Reject 10-Cent Boost

The local turned down a company offer of a 10 cents an hour raise over 18 months plus fringe benefits before walking out Feb. 9. Valley employees made $1.50 to $1.70 an hour under the old contract which expired Jan. 31.

John Elliott, international vice president of the union, said he will offer neither a recommendation or opposition to the new terms.

Both sides said that if an agreement was reached bus service would be restored Monday.

During the strike drivers have been operating personal autos as a free courtesy car service between the West Shore and Harrisburg. Three have been arrested and fined for transporting passengers without proper state authority.

The new proposal was completed last night after a meeting between Wayne G. Doyle, local president; the union negotiating committee; and John Succa, Valley owner.

Bootlegger Sells 1st Pint To Dep. Sheriff

COLUMBIA, S. C. (P)—State Circuit Judge E. H. Henderson gave a confessed bootlegger first offense choice of six months or $100 after exacting a promise from the man that he would mend his ways. "I'm through!" the prisoner assured Henderson. "That was the first and only pint I ever sold, and darned if that wasn't to a deputy sheriff."

ALL 30 PENNA. CONGRESSMEN ARE CANDIDATES

HARRISBURG (P)—All of Pennsylvania's 30 congressmen are seeking re-election this year—and exactly half of them have no opposition in the May 18 primary.

Nomination petitions filed with the State Elections Bureau show 120 persons in the congressional race. The lineup of the Pennsylvania delegation is now 19 Republicans, 11 Democrats.

The filing of George F. Kennan, former ambassador to Russia, attracted nationwide interest. But Kennan, who makes his home in East Berlin, Adams County, yesterday withdrew his bid for the Democratic nomination from the 19th Dist. embracing Cumberland, Adams and York counties.

The fight in the 19th Dist. now represented by Rep. S. Walter Stauffer, York, is one of the most congested in the state. Stauffer is opposed for the GOP nomination by former Rep. Chester H. Gross and C. Philip Moore Jr., both of York.

Three candidates are in the race among the Democrats. They are Maynard M. Small, New Cumberland; Earl D. Warner, Red Lion, and James M. Quigley, Camp Hill.

Two Republican factions will battle it out in the 17th Dist. where Rep. Alvin R. Bush, Muncy R. 2, wants to remain in office.

10 Candidates In 6th Dist.
Sheriff William M. King of Lycoming County is his opponent in the May 18 primary. The district includes Lycoming, Bradford, Potter, Cameron, Clinton and Tioga counties.

Ten candidates—two Republicans and eight Democrats—are in the race to represent the 6th Dist. in Philadelphia where Republican Hugh D. Scott, former Republican national chairman, is the incumbent.

18 High School Cage Squads Remaining In Running For Three State Championships

By DICK HOENIG

HARRISBURG (P)—Eighteen scholastic basketball teams are still in there pitching for three state championships at the two-thirds mark of the PIAA's annual month long playoff grind.

The race for the big school title left vacant by the defeat of Yeadon has narrowed down to seven contenders, only one — Farrell — a title holder. Seven teams remain in the running for the Class B crown including the defending titlists, Irwin of the WPIAL and Dist. 7.

The Class C ranks were thinned to four semifinalists last night in two eastern preliminary regional games.

Yeadon's successor will be determined Saturday, March 27, in Philadelphia while the Class B and C championship contests are set for Friday, March 26. The Class B game will be in the east, the Class C in the west at undetermined sites.

Some Survivors

Survivors of the first weeks of playoff action:

Class A—Farrell, Chester, Johnstown, Williamsport, Meadville, Chambersburg and Pittsburgh Westinghouse.

Class B—Irwin, Ashley, Mount Penn, Ridley Park, Mercer, Forbes and Montrose.

Class C—Southmont, West Middlesex, Mount Joy and Newton Ransom.

Only two of the PIAA's 12 district can claim representation in all three classes at this point. They are Dist. 10, the upper northwest composed of Erie, Crawford, Mercer, Venango and Warren counties; and Dist. 3, taking in some 10 southeastern counties.

Carrying Dist. 10 colors are Meadville in Class A, Mercer in Class B and West Middlesex in Class C. For Dist. 3 it's Chambersburg in the Class A ranks, Mount Penn in Class B and Mount Joy in Class C. None of the six schools has ever gone all the way to the top in its division.

Four Semi-Finalists

Dist. 7, the WPIAL, with Farrell and Irwin in the running, and Dist. 12, the northeast corner of the state, both have the maximum number of entries possible, two. Dist. 7 does not have Class C competition and there aren't any teams in Dist. 12.

By the end of the week all three divisions will be down to four semifinalists. Eastern and western regional games are set for next Monday in Class C, Tuesday in Class B and Wednesday in Class A.

In one of two playoff games last night Mount Joy of Lancaster County overpowered Dist. 11's Coplay, 64-43, to gain one Class C eastern final berth. Newton Ransom of the Suburban League went into overtime to edge Hugshestown of Dist. 2, 69-66, for the other Class C eastern final spot.

Kellner Pleases Athletics Manager

WEST PALM BEACH, Fla. (P)—Manager Eddie Joost of the Philadelphia Athletics is looking at the world through rose colored glasses these days and one of the brightest things he sees is southpaw Alex Kellner.

Kellner, one of the A's "must" players from a pitching standpoint, had a so-so year in 1953, chalking up 11 wins against 12 losses. In spring training this year Alex has been looking steadily better.

Yesterday, he turned in five scoreless innings as the A's won their 7th straight exhibition game, whipping the New York Yankees 5-3. Alex gave up only two hits, one a triple by Gil McDougald and the other a double by Jim Brideweser. Kellner fanned four and retired the last seven men to face him.

Billiard Champion Leads World Tourney

PHILADELPHIA (P)—Erwin Rudolph, Sayre, Pa., five-times pocket billiards champion, has taken a commanding lead in the world tourney play underway here.

Rudolph won both his matches yesterday to run his unbeaten string in the present competition to four. Rudolph beat Joe Canton, Watervliet, N. Y., 150-79, in an afternoon match and came right back last night to whip Mike Eufemia, Brooklyn, N. Y., 150-9.

In yesterday's other matches, Luther Lassiter, Elizabeth City, N. C., defeated Irving Crane, pre-tournament favorite from Birmingham, N. Y., 150-51, in nine innings and Morris (Snooks) Peralstein, Atlantic City, N. J., whipped Jimmy Moore, Albuquerque, N. M., 150-106.

4 "UNDERDOGS" IN SCRAP FOR NCAA HONORS

By SKIPPER PATRICK

KANSAS CITY (P)—A favorite team is mighty hard to find among underdogs.

And all four teams seeking the National Collegiate basketball championship here this weekend were underdogs before the regional NCAA playoffs started.

That's why the experts are moving cautiously about picking the winners in tomorrow's semifinals, involving Southern California and Bradley at 9 p. m. and LaSalle and Penn State at 10:45.

There were only two close calls for the "fortunate four" in the regionals as they qualified for the showdown here.

Southern Cal needed two overtimes to beat Santa Clara, 66-65, in the quarterfinals at Corvallis, Ore. LaSalle squeaked past Fordham, 76-74, in the first round at Buffalo. Other than those two upsets, four teams made it easy work.

Practice Today

The Californians, Pacific Coast champions, and LaSalle were in town last night. Penn State and Bradley are scheduled in today. All were to work today or early tonight in Municipal Auditorium where the games will be played.

Coach Forrest Twogood, who brought his team in yesterday afternoon, expressed confidence the Trojans would make a strong run for the championship.

"We've come along slowly," Twogood said. "If we are hot at the right moment we'll have as good a chance as anybody to win it. In fact, the winner's got to be hot all the way."

FILM BEAUTIES IN AUTO RACE

SAN REMO, Italy (P)—A long, low whistle instead of a starter's gun should touch off the most glamorous auto race in history here.

The racers will be the most roundly-curved, dazzling pin-up beauties of Italy's international movie colony.

Valentina Cortese will drive with husband Richard Basehart. Silvana Pampanini is paired with Morris Egan, Marina Berti with Claudio Gora, Elena Varzi with Raf Vallone and Carla de Poggio with Alberto Lattuada.

The other lovelies who will participate are May Britt, Swedish starlet; Miriam Bru, curvaceous French pin-up queen; Antonella Lualdi, Cosetta Greco, Milly Vitale and Lea Padovani. Bruce Cabot, veteran American actor, also will drive.

The March 5-7 race is being sponsored by the International Convention of Auto Body Makers. There will be $15,000 in prizes for the actors plus a gay, free holiday.

The race will be directed by Alberto Ascarelli, world racing champion, and Roberto Rossellini, husband of film star Ingrid Bergman. Rossellini, long interested in auto racing, competed in the famous Mille Miglia race last year.

RETURNING SERVICEMEN

NEW YORK (P)—Four National League clubs figure to gain strength during the 1954 baseball season because of returning servicemen. The champion Dodgers will get Pitcher Don Newcombe back, Pitcher Chet Nichols returns to the Braves in Milwaukee, Centerfielder Willie Mays is scheduled to be back with the Giants and Pitcher Tom Poholsky with the Cardinals. However, the Cards have lost Pitcher Wilmer Mizell to the Army.

WOMEN BOWL FOR STEAKS

OMAHA, Neb. (P)—Giving prizes for top bowling performances is not new. But in the Ladies' Classic League here the method of winning prizes is announced before the games start. Sometimes prizes are awarded for the highest score above a player's average. Another time the two women with the highest and lowest scores are the winners. Each week a different method is used. Winners receive steak dinners.

A's Lost Draft Choice When Dykes Was Fired

By FRANK ECK

NEW YORK (P)—When the Philadelphia Athletics fired Jimmy Dykes as manager they also lost their No. 1 choice in the major league draft.

The player they lost is Vinicio (Chico) Garcia, a second baseman who hit .305 for Shreveport in his fourth season in the Class AA Texas League.

"Garcia was recommended to the A's by Bonneau Peters, Shreveport owner," says Dykes. "He was their No. 1 draft choice. Naturally, when I went to Baltimore along with General Manager Art Ehlers we both knew this. And since our new Baltimore club has first pick in the draft at Atlanta we made Garcia our man."

Dykes figures Garcia will have to beat out Bobby Young to play second base for the new Orioles who replaced the St. Louis Browns. The Browns, having finished last in the American League, had first draft pick.

To show that the Athletics really wanted a second baseman, they made their No. 1 pick Forest (Spook) Jacobs, who batted .282 as a second baseman for Brooklyn's Fort Worth team in the Texas League. Jacobs previously put in four seasons with Mobile in the Southern Association.

If Garcia and Jacobs make the majors as rookies it will be interesting to see if Dykes and Ehlers really outsmarted the A's.

FUTURE STARS

Farrell High On Harrell As Coming Major Leaguer

By KERBY FARRELL
Manager, Indianapolis Indians

INDIANAPOLIS (P)—Moving in here after two seasons with Reading in the Class A Eastern League is a new experience for me but I'm looking forward to it. However, I'm not coming in cold for Indianapolis will have some real good prospects, fellows who will be only one jump away from the major leagues.

I feel very fortunate in that I know something about some of the players. At Reading I had Bill Harrell, a Negro shortstop from Troy, N. Y., and Bill Meyer, a 6-4 right-handed pitcher. Harrell hit .331 at Reading, is 6-2, weighs 185 and is 23. He lost the Eastern League batting title by one point to Ed Schell of Schenectady.

"Home Anywhere"

Harrell has good hands and while he played five positions he is home anywhere you play him. He had only one month at Cedar Rapids, Iowa, in the Class B Three first full year in organized ball. Everybody in the Cleveland organization, the parent club, is looking forward to the boy's debut in Triple A. Harrell is the athlete who was a great basketball player at Siena College near Albany, N. Y.

Meyer, a 6-4 right-hander weighing 210, won 19 and lost 8 at Reading in his third year of pro ball. He has good speed and a fair curve.

From what I hear a real good prospect for the majors is coming out of Indianapolis. He is Dick Tomanek, 23, a left-handed pitcher. He compiled a 13-8 record for Birdie Tebbetts last year. His earned run record was 3.11 and he had 158 strikeouts in 165 innings.

DOGS

by Tom Farley

Feeding the Sporting Dog

Sporting dog owners have the same feeding problems as pet owners—magnified. They usually own more than one dog, and those dogs may be called upon to run the hills for many hours a day.

To keep a sporting dog in top condition, three factors must be considered in selecting his food—quality, convenience and cost. And there are three general types of foods to give him—homemade mixtures, commercial canned food and meal.

Home prepared foods involve knowing your dietetics if you are going to achieve a balanced diet. If the ingredients are purchased especially for the dog, they are apt to be expensive. If table scraps are used, the cost goes down, but so does the quality.

The best grades of canned dog food probably provide as fine a diet as any dog can get anywhere, and are the most convenient. On the basis of cost, they are probably less than especially purchased foods, but a little more than meal, which is generally the least expensive of all.

Meal type foods used to be considered by some experts to be an incomplete diet because they lacked sufficient fat. But a couple of years ago, Swift & Company developed a way to maintain quality in animal fats without refrigeration and today the best meals are a complete diet. In tests on litter mates in Swift's Nutritional Research Kennels in Chicago, puppies fed entirely on Pard Meal gained weight and stamina just as fast as their brothers and sisters fed on other diets.

But what do most sporting dog owners actually feed?

A recent survey of several hundred dog owners showed that most of them varied their dogs' diets according to situation. Canned foods were particularly popular for feeding in the field. Meal seemed to form the backbone of most diets. But milk, beef, oat meal, and venison were all mentioned as supplementary rations.

The sportsman is still an individualist.

FISHING DATES FOR PROTECTED AREA ARE FIXED

HARRISBURG (P)—Dates and regulations for 1954 fishing at Fisherman's Paradise, the state's No. 1 trout stream, have been issued by the State Fish Commission.

The protected location on Spring Creek, near Bellefonte, Centre County, will be open May 14 to July 17 inclusive, except Sundays. The rules for Fisherman's Paradise only:

Legal fishing hours will be from 8 a. m. to 8 p. m. EST.

Fishing is restricted to use of artificial lures of hair or feather construction with barbless hooks.

Minimum size on the large stream 8 1/2 inches and on the women's fishing stream 7 inches. Spoons, spinners or swivels are not allowed and wading in the stream for any purpose is prohibited.

Only one fish can be killed by each angler on any one day.

Regularly licensed Pennsylvanians may fish at the project five times during the season and must register personally going in and coming out.

No special fishing license is required.

Huge Radio Telescope Will Measure Distance

AMSTERDAM, Netherlands (P)—The largest radio telescope on the European Continent will be erected in the village of Dwinglo in one of the Northern provinces of the Netherlands.

Holland's leading astronomer, Dr. Jan Hendrik Oort, said the telescope is a gigantic aerial system for picking up and measuring very high frequency radiations from celestial bodies which can't even be observed with the strongest telescope.

This modern science recently has led to important discoveries on the dimensions of the universe.

FLIGHT IS FATAL

LE MESA, Calif. (P)—Ignacio Hurado, 40, farm hand, ran head first into a tree while fleeing from a Great Dane Dog. The coroner said death two days later was from a brain injury.

The early successes of Hannibal were based on a successful combination of infantry and cavalry at a time when the Roman cavalry forces were almost nonexistent.

Hamner Hits In 11 Consecutive Games

CLEARWATER, Fla. (P)—Gran Hamner, Philadelphia Phillies shortstop, is burning up the Grapefruit League with his batting prowess.

Hamner has hit safely in every one of the Phillies 11 exhibition games to date, adding a single to his list of basehits in yesterday's 2-0 loss to the Milwaukee Braves.

Both Hamner and Manager Steve O'Neill are hoping that Ham's hitting in Florida is an indication he is headed for another good year at the plate. Hamner hit a satisfactory .276 in 1953, accounting for 21 homers and 92 runs batted in.

GENE LITTLER'S NATURAL SWING LED TO STARDOM

By NORMAN BELL

SAN DIEGO (P)—Take the word of Gene Littler's mother: "I guess he is just a born golfer."

She thus sums up his achievements in winning the 1953 National Amateur championship and starting 1954 by beating the top professionals before joining them.

Littler, 23-year-old San Diego native, was the first amateur to win a Professional Golfers Association tournament in six years.

He did it by winning the San Diego $15,000 Open with a 14-under-par 274 for 72 holes on the Rancho Santa Fe course. His score was four better than that of the leading pro, the veteran Dutch Harrison of Ardmore, Okla.

It was the first time the money golfers had been humbled by a for-run played since Frank Stranahan of Toledo, Ohio, did it in the 1948 Miami Open.

Started When 9

Littler's mother, Mrs. Dorothy Lowry, says he started golf when he was 9. He never had a formal lesson. The only teaching he had was, so to speak, at his mammy's knee. Mrs. Lowry is a past president of the San Diego County Women's Golf Association.

Stanley F. Littler, the father, also credits Gene with natural ability but says he had difficulty developing confidence. The father disclosed that Littler carries for psychological reasons a book intended to inspire belief in himself and will to win. (It's "Think and Grow Rich," by Napoleon Hill.)

The young player was released from Navy service and turned pro one week after his San Diego triumph. Some credit the Navy with an assist in bringing him to his victory peak.

Instead of being distracted by the problem of making a living, Littler was in a position, from the time of his enlistment in 1951, to devote most of his time to the game. He was assigned to duty at the San Diego Naval Air Station and San Diego Recruit Depot golf courses.

This gave him the opportunity to keep pace with the pros, who spend as much time practicing as they do playing.

Becomes A Pro

He has solved the problem of a living for his family — his wife is expecting a baby soon — by becoming pro at Palm Springs, Calif. He also promotes products for a sporting goods concern.

His mother and father, with pardonable pride, believe his career will bring him honors and wealth. His wife, a petite blonde whom he met while attending San Diego State College, says: "If Gene could only cook he would be a handy man around the house."

She points to furniture he has made, some covered with material he put together with a sewing machine.

As a boy, Littler played on whatever course happened to be handy and at 14 he occasionally beat par figures on all of them. He won several local junior tournaments and continued winning as a member of his college team. In 1947 he was runner up to Al Mengert of Spokane, now also a pro, for the National Junior Chamber of Commerce title at Peoria, Ill.

Wins In 1948

The next year Littler won that title at Lincoln, Neb. From then on his progress was as methodical as his game.

He was on the U. S. Walker Cup Team in 1953 prior to winning the National Amateur at Oklahoma City last Sept. 19. He followed by capturing the California state open and amateur crowns.

Littler gets amazing distance with his unusually short and compact swing. His ability to concentrate, plus the will to win that his father credits to the book, help his iron and putting departments.

He believes he has corrected many faults by close attention to the game. But his mother, recalling the game, says she first took him to a course, says: "Gene's swing was no different than that of mine. I guess he is just a born golfer."

YANKEES LOSE AGAIN; BUT IT'S NOT TOO SERIOUS

By RIP WATSON

Associated Press Sports Writer
Don't bother to shed a tear for the stumbling New York Yankees, who are having trouble winning baseball games these days.

Casey Stengel's young men lost their fourth straight exhibition yesterday. The surprising Philadelphia Athletics whipped the world champions 5-3 for their seventh win in a row. That makes eight losses in 11 tries for the Yanks and leaves the New Yorkers seventh in the American League spring standings.

But before you start consigning the champs to a second division berth, it is worthwhile to note that only two of Stengel's October, or World Series, players were in the March starting lineup.

5th Last Spring

Gil McDougald opened at third base and belted two triples, the second three-bagger driving in the first Yankee run, and Gene Woodling started in left field. Shortstop Phil Rizzuto also came in the game in the late innings. The Scooter rapped a single in the Yanks' two-run rally in the ninth.

For purposes of comparison, a look backwards shows that New York was fifth among American League teams at the conclusion of spring training a year ago.

Four players obtained from the Yanks in a trade last December drove in runs in the Athletics' victory. Rookie Jim Fmigan clouted a home run off Steve Kraly, who used to be his teammate at Birmingham in the Eastern League last years. Vic Power, Bill Renna and Don Bollweg also sent runs home.

Brooks Thump Sox

The Brooklyn Dodgers, meanwhile, apparently are taking a directly opposite course in getting ready to try for their third consecutive pennant and still another go at the Yanks in the World Series.

Although they were shut out by Sandy Consuegra for five innings and managed only seven hits to Chicago's nine, the Brooks thumped the White Sox 5-1 yesterday and now boast an eight-game winning streak. Six regulars started for the Dodgers. Don Hoak's home run and a two-run triple by fleet Junior Gilliam were the big blows backing up a good pitching job by veteran rookie Pete Wojey, Don Bessent and Bob Milliken.

The Milwaukee Braves, looked upon in some quarters as the Dodgers' chief threats, got even better pitching as fastballer Bob Buhl and rookie Ray Crone limited the Philadelphia Phillies to five hits in a 2-0 victory. Joe Adcock, Braves first baseman, batted in both runs with singles in the first and eighth innings.

Tigers Shut Out

The Cincinnati trio of Art Fowler, Jim Melton and Jack Crimian almost combined for a shutout too in a 4-1 win over the Detroit Tigers. The losers' only run came in the ninth inning, and it was tainted by an error by the Redlegs' Johnny Temple.

One losing streak ended and another was continued as the Boston Red Sox took a 10-6 slugfest over the Washington Senators. A five-run seventh inning put the Sox over the top, with the key blow a two-run, pinch-hit single by rookie Harry Agganis.

The victory ended a five-game losing streak for Boston, while the Senators now have lost all of their eight spring training games.

The Cincinnati "B" team defeated the Philadelphia Phillies "B" squad 6-4.

SENTENCED TO JAIL

MEDIA, Pa. (P)—Charles A. Moylan, 53, Boothwyn, Pa., was sentenced to four to 12 months in Delaware County prison yesterday after he pleaded guilty to charges of operating an illegal lottery.

Judge John V. Diggins also fined Moylan $150 as the head of a lottery which the district attorney's office said was operated for a fake "Anthracite Benevolent League."

Fred P. Galgani, 31, Claymont, Del., was fined $150 at the same time on similar charges. He was accused of handling some of the lottery tickets.

FIREMEN SEEK $3,500 TO PAY PUMPER DEBT

The Vigilant Hose Co. of Emmitsburg will be seeking $3,500 to complete payments on its new fire truck when the firemen begin the annual canvass for contribution April 5.

Guy R. McLaughlin, chairman of the fund drive, said: "Since this fire company is a volunteer organization, supported solely by contributions, we feel that by asking you each year for a contribution, this will enable us to keep our equipment in good condition and to purchase needed new equipment, thereby insuring the community that the fire company stands ready to meet any emergency which occurs."

"In the last year we responded to 57 fires, with an average of 20 men per fire, which amounted to 1,080 man-hours of fire fighting. We also had 14 men take a course in using the Chemox gas mask and 12 men took a course in using the oxygen equipment belonging to the VFW."

Give Financial Statement

"Besides buying new coats, boots, helmets and a set of tires for the one truck, plus numerous other small items, we also reduced our indebtedness in the amount of $3,500. Our goal this year is to pay the final mortgage on our new truck, which is $3,500."

Other members of Mr. McLaughlin's committee, as announced by fire company president Herbert Roger, include Guy A. Baker Sr., Charles R. Fuss, Herbert W. Roger, J. William Rowe and John J. Hollinger.

The 1953 financial statement announced at the same time by the Vigilant Hose Company shows the organization had an income of $9,511.83 during the year and began 1954 with a balance of $1,820.43.

SCOTLAND YARD PROBES THREATS TO KILL QUEEN

LONDON (AP)—Scotland Yard said today it is investigating a series of anonymous letters threatening to kill Queen Elizabeth II if she sets foot on Gibraltar.

A police spokesman said the inquiry has not yet determined whether the letters are from a crank or from a real desperado.

The Yard tightened security arrangements for the scheduled visit of the Queen and the Duke of Edinburgh to Gibraltar May 10 as part of their world tour.

The letters, about 12 in all, were written in red ink and signed "Palange Espanola"—apparently intended to mean the Spanish Fascist organization. They were posted in London in the past six days to a number of Parliament members, including former Labor and at least two London newspapers.

Called "Hoax"

A Spanish embassy spokesman in London said "we are quite certain that the letters are a hoax. No Spaniard would have signed it 'Palange Espanola,' which is wrong."

Spain has protested against the Queen's visit to Gibraltar, claiming the rocky outpost guarding the entry to the Mediterranean is rightfully Spanish.

Scotland Yard also is investigating a letter threatening Lady Churchill, wife of the Prime Minister. It was received at 10 Downing St. earlier this week.

Hen's Mother Love Overcomes Hunger

BREMERTON, Wash. (AP)—When a hen adopted four wee puppies here, there was just one trouble.

As an old worm-snatcher, Susabelle was intrigued by the pups' tiny tails. Mr. and Mrs. Edward Hahn said the resulting cries of the quadruplets appealed to Susabelle's higher maternal qualities and it wasn't long before she provided safe shelter for the tails under her wings, along with the pups.

The Hahns took care of the feeding, by bottle, until the pups' mother got back from the hospital.

HIGH COURT IS ASKED TO LIFT BAN ON PHOTOS

PITTSBURGH (AP) — David W. Mack, general manager of the Greensburg Tribune-Review Publishing Co., asked the State Supreme Court Wednesday to lift the news picture ban in the Westmoreland County Courthouse and jail.

Mack claimed the County Court order banning the taking of pictures in the County Courthouse and jail "is in violation of the constitution of the United States and the constitution of Pennsylvania."

The Greensburg Review-Tribune, joined by the Pittsburgh Post-Gazette, obtained a temporary U. S. District Court injunction March 2 permitting photographers to take pictures in courthouse corridors if they first obtained written permission of their subjects in writing.

Federal District Judge Wallace S. Gourley continued the temporary injunction until March 22, staying the present proceedings in his court but leaving the door open to the publishers to seek a remedy in the state's high court.

Judge Gourley said if the state's high court rules against the publishers on their basic rights under the constitution he will conduct further hearings.

Three Westmoreland County judges ordered the picture blackout on Feb. 25 in advance of the John Wesley Wable trial. He was convicted of killing a sleeping trucker on the Pennsylvania Turnpike. The judges contended defendants should get a fair and impartial trial without outside influence.

In Great Britain with a population of 50 million, more than 23 million are employed.

POLICE CAPTURE SIX ESCAPEES; 2 STILL SOUGHT

BORDENTOWN, N. J. (AP)—All but two of the eight youths who broke out of the New Jersey Reformatory here were back in custody today.

Police pressed their hunt for the two still at large—Robert Brennan, 20, of Whitehouse, and Raymond Carl Freda, alias Carl Conditto, 20, of Irvington.

The eight youths made their way to freedom Monday night by cutting the bars of a basement metal shop window with an acetylene torch.

Six were recaptured Tuesday in various sections of the state. Arthur Allen, 20, was seized last night as he hid under a bed in the cellar of his home at Avenel. Two more were nabbed before noon as they hid in the woods in Crosswicks—about a mile from the reformatory.

Three others were picked up early Tuesday morning — one as he walked along the New Jersey Turnpike at Hightstown, and the two others after leading Palmyra police on a car chase about 20 miles from the institution.

The pair of escapees caught in the Crosswicks woods were John Woodworth, 21, of Newark, and Arthur Gutowski, 20, of Perth Amboy. Aldo Verrio, 20, of Passaic, was the youth recaptured on the turnpike. Those seized after the Palmyra car chase were Eugene Hines of Florence, and Ronald Richardson, 19, of Lawrenceville. Richardson suffered a minor wound from a bullet fired by police as he attempted to flee from the car.

Connecticut and Rhode Island claim the lowest infant mortality rates in the United States.

DARCY LAWYERS TO CLOSE CASE THIS AFTERNOON

SCRANTON, Pa. (P) — Attorneys for David Darcy were expected to wind up their argument today in habeas corpus proceedings aimed at winning the convicted holdup slayer a new trial.

Defense Atty. Charles J. Margotti said yesterday he would wind up his side of the proceedings today.

Darcy was convicted with two companions in 1948 of the Feaster-ville, Pa., holdup slaying of William Kelly. Darcy was sentenced to die in the electric chair but several stays have delayed his execution, the last a postponement from April 5 to Aug. 2.

"Deprived Of Rights"

In the habeas corpus proceedings before U. S. District Judges Albert J. Watson and John W. Murphy, Darcy's attorneys are attempting to prove he was deprived of his constitutional rights during his trial before Judge Hiram W. Keller at Doylestown.

One witness appearing yesterday —Darcy's aunt, Miss Marian R. Ford, a Philadelphia real estate broker—testified she saw another Bucks County judge, Calvin S. Boyer, now dead, sitting constantly on the bench with Judge Keller offering "collaboration and discussion." She also said she saw Judge

Boyer putting questions to defense Atty. Webster S. Achey during the trial.

Darcy's sister, Mrs. Inez Darcy Rechman, Philadelphia house wife, took the stand to testify she heard Doylestown residents say—just before Darcy's trial date—that they thought he should be "strung up" rather than tried.

CATCH WAS MISTAKE

YAKIMA (P)—Jerry Miller, almost 11, and his brother, Donald E. Miller, Jr., 12, were playing catch with a yellow-headed thumb-tack. Just as Donald tossed the tack, Jerry laughed. The tack smacked into Jerry's mouth, stuck in his throat. He had to have a doctor take it out.

BLASTS SEVER CHESTER POWER

CHESTER, Pa. (P)—A switch on an underground transformer exploded in a pair of blasts yesterday that rocked Chester's business district and shut off electric power to a number of office buildings. The blasts shot a grating cover, four by eight feet in size, into the air and passersby said flames shot from the opening.

A spokesman for the Philadelphia Electric Co. said the explosions were apparently caused by a transformer switch in a shaft under the sidewalk in front of the company's Chester office.

The company spokesman said considerable damage might have been caused to the sidewalk if the grating opening hadn't provided an escape vent for the full force of the blasts.

No one was hurt although the explosions came at the height of the noon rush hour.

City Firemen Dedicate Pool — In Mid-Winter

AKRON, Ohio (P)—Brave firemen of Minerva dedicated that village's new outdoor swimming pool in midwinter.

Before a cheering crowd, a dozen volunteer firemen discarded topcoats they had placed over their swim suits and took the icy plunge.

The thermometer read 32 degrees. The volunteer fire fighters who built the 450,000 gallon circular pool during evenings and weekends had promised to dedicate the

Freezing P.M. Will Be Out Of Business

SECANE, Pa. (P) — The Secane Post Office, which figured in the news when the postmistress complained she was slowly freezing, is going out of business.

Two years ago, Postmistress Eleanor Kirkland announced she was closing up shop temporarily because several windows in the postal quarters she occupied were out and she could no longer stand the chill breezes.

The Pennsylvania Railroad, owners of the building in which the small Post Office was housed, sent around its repair crew and in short order Mrs. Kirkland had herself some new windows.

Yesterday, in Washington, Asst. Postmaster General N. R. Adams announced Secane and neighboring Primos were to have their mail service provided from now on out of the Clifton Heights, Pa., Post Office.

Governor Lifts Hat After 'Honesty' Talk

LINCOLN, Neb. (P)—Gov. Robert Crosby of Nebraska has under way a campaign to get all personal property in the state on the tax rolls. He calls it "Operation Honesty."

He went to Crete to tell about it—then after his talk, walked out of the hall with Mayor Fred Krest's hat!

It was all straightened out before the governor left town.

New Oxford

NEW OXFORD—The infant son of Carl M. and Gloria Ann Weaver Mahone has been named Matthew David.

Mrs. Charles L. Eicholtz remains confined to her home under the care of a practical nurse.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Brothers, who were married in February, have returned to their duties at the local bank where both have been employed for some time. They are residing in New Oxford.

Miss Mae Kuhn, who had been assisting at the convalescent home operated by her sister-in-law, Mrs. Joseph S. Kuhn, is now spending some time near East Berlin caring for Mrs. James L. Spangler.

Mrs. Lawrence Byers remains quite ill at her home where her husband has recovered after an illness.

The Rev. W. W. Ritter, Sewickley, a Lutheran minister and father of Mrs. Philip E. Alwine, this place, was guest speaker during the week at a service at the local Lutheran church.

John Max is the name chosen by Paul and Anna Jane Bollinger Schoedter, Waynesboro, for their new son. Mrs. Schoedter is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Bollinger, this place.

Class No. 3 of St. Paul's Reformed Sunday School met during the past week at the home of Mrs. Roy Bollinger.

Theda, Donna and Anita, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Cyril Rickrode, instrumental musicians, were seen recently over a nearby television station. Theda Ann, the eldest, is a student in the high school department of St. Joseph's Academy, McSherrystown, and her sisters are enrolled at the local parochial school.

The Ladies Auxiliary of the local fire company will meet this evening at the new engine house with Mrs. LeRoy Rife and Mrs. Hilien Rife in charge of entertainment and refreshments.

'Good Looking Girls' Cause Car Smash Up

SAN PEDRO, Calif. (P)—What traffic officers have suspected as a cause of automobile accidents was confirmed here by a 14-year-old boy. The youth, unidentified, took his mother's car without her permission, then smashed the auto into a parked car, police said.

The boy's reason for the crack-up—he took his eyes off the road "to look at two good looking girls."

RAILROADS GET INCREASE FOR CARRYING MAIL

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Interstate Commerce Commission today granted the railroads a 10 per cent increase in the rates paid them by the government for handling the U.S. mails.

The increase is retroactive to last Oct. 1.

The ICC estimated the increase will give the rail industry about $2½ million dollars a year additional revenue. The retroactive payments for the period Oct. 1, 1953-March 31, 1954 were estimated at $1½ million.

The 10 per cent increase was not contested by the Postoffice Department, which accepted railroad data on increased operating costs since the last mail pay adjustments were made in late 1951.

Originally, the railroads had requested a 45 per cent increase in the mail pay rate. The department said this would be strenuously opposed. Finally, both sides agreed to 10 per cent.

Complex Formula
Mail pay is calculated by a rather complex formula taking into account the type of equipment used, the delivery mileage and handling costs at terminals.

At the brief hearing early this year, the railroads said that for the year 1952 they received $324,675,000 in mail revenues and that their out-of-pocket costs for handling this business amounted to $333,256,995, leaving a deficit of $8,581,995.

The loss, the industry reported, showed up in spite of the fact that railroad mail pay rates were practically doubled in a series of staggered increases granted by the ICC during a four-year proceeding in 1947-51.

Today's retroactive increase applies to 121 major railroads.

U. S. GUNS DUEL WITH REDS IN INDOCHINA WAR

HANOI, Indochina (AP) — French guns from the United States and Chinese-supplied Vietminh artillery duelled at long range today across the barbed wire of Dien Bien Phu as the defenders of the big French fortress in northwest rebel assaults.

With clear, sunny weather the French also unleashed the full fury of their air power on the Communist-led rebels' artillery posts and troops massed around the heavily fortified plain. In their sixth day of constant attack, the French still were confident they would win a major victory.

Latest word from the battleground plain six miles long and four miles wide said the rebels still had not resumed the frontal assaults by thousands of screaming fanatic warriors which so far had been unable to penetrate the barbed wire ringed, bunkered heart of the fortress.

Avoid Clash
Though the French expected a resumption of the rebel charges momentarily, the Vietminh since yesterday had steered shy of the mad, wave-on-wave rushes which had strewn the battlefield and barbed wire with an estimated 3,000 rebel dead and 9,000 wounded—equivalent of a full division.

From land and aircraft carrier bases American-supplied Hellcats, Bearcats, Privateers and B26 bombers roared over Dien Bien Phu to paste the rebels.

Other transports continued to parachute reinforcement troops and war material to the French in the heart of the plain.

Rescue Survivors Of Plane Crash

TAIPEH, Formosa (AP) — An amphibious rescue plane landed here today with six survivors and the body of one man killed in bailing out of a crippled C119 Flying Boxcar 100 miles east of Formosa.

The pilot and co-pilot landed the faltering plane safely at Taipei a few minutes later. It had developed engine trouble en route from Okinawa.

Only minutes after they hit the water, the men who parachuted were picked up by an amphibious plane of the Chinese Nationalist Fighting air line. No names were announced.

REDS RELEASE CANADIANS

PANMUNJOM (AP) — The Communists today released two Canadian soldiers after holding them overnight in a bunker, an Allied spokesman announced.

The Canadians are Pvt. Douglas Grant Phillips of Kitchener, Ont., and Pvt. James Andres Piercy of Toronto.

The Communists took the Canadians prisoner in the neutral zone yesterday.

The U.N. Command protested their capture at a liaison meeting of Allied and Communist officers.

STOCKS SHOW VIGOR

NEW YORK (AP) — The stock market continued its recovery drive today for the second straight session. Many major divisions of the market joined in with vigor and pushed gains to between 1 and 2 points at the best. Losses were small.

PUERTO RICAN NATIONALISTS PLAN SLAYINGS OF U. S. OFFICIALS

NEW YORK (AP)—A cryptic State Department warning that Puerto Rican Nationalists planned to kill "important" persons — including Henry Cabot Lodge, U. S. ambassador to the United Nations—sent 200 extra city police on special guard duty early today.

Although Lodge was the only person named in the emergency order, officers were rushed to residences of prominent national, state and local officials.

The FBI had no comment on the alert. Further information from the State Department was not immediately available.

Dewey Goes To Farm

Lodge, who stays at the Waldorf-Astoria Towers, reportedly retired shortly before midnight.

Gov Thomas E. Dewey, in town for the St. Patrick's Day parade, reportedly left his Roosevelt Hotel apartment late last night for his farm home in Pawling, N. Y.

Special protection was given Sen. John F. Kennedy (D-Mass.), stopping at the Waldorf-Astoria Hotel.

Germany, railroad station dining rooms in Coblenz, Hamburg, Altona, Mannheim and Stuttgart now print their menus not only in German but in English, French and the Scandinavian languages to help foreign diners.

Railroad engines cover many a mile during their lifetime, but it's rare that a locomotive travels in so many countries as did one boomer 0-4-2. It was built in Germany, sent to Egypt for use on a plantation, drafted into service on the Gamil Light Railway in Palestine during World War I and finally shipped around the world to Canberra, Australia. The homes of several federal judges and other officials got special protection on the strength of supplementary police orders dealing with public officials residing on Manhattan's West Side. Among them is Rep. Franklin D. Roosevelt Jr. (D-Lib-NY).

The shooting of five congressmen on the floor of the House in Washington more than two weeks ago touched off an intensive hunt here for fanatic Puerto Rican Nationalists.

bit of consternation when it was discovered recently that toy money, selling at the five-and-dime stores at a dime for a sizeable package, was being used successfully in place of the new 15-cent tokens in the subway turnstiles of New York. The F. W. Woolworth Company has obligingly removed the toy money from the market while engineers of the N. Y. City Transit Authority redesign the turnstiles.

March is the month of the aquamarine and the bloodstone, both symbols of courage. The aquamarine, a beryl gem stone related to the emerald, is the choice of many because of its clear, blue-green beauty. It has the depth and tone of sea water and, like the sea, varies in the intensity of its color, from delicate pale blue to cool green.

According to the Jewelry Industry Council, the ancients wore this stone, engraved with the head of the Sea God, for protection against the perils of the sea. It is noted in the "Vision of Piers the Plowman" a poem written about 1377, that the wearer of the aquamarine was miraculously protected from the ravages of poison.

Aquamarines are famous for versatility and subtlety of color, making them particularly becoming to women, whether blonde or brunette. In rings, clips and other jewelry for women they are often set with diamonds. Aquamarines are mined in Brazil, Madagascar and the United States.

The bloodstone, a dark green chalcedony spotted with red inclusions of jasper, is found in Siberia and India. It commemorates the crucifixion in that there is an old legend that a piece of green chalcedony lay at the foot of the cross on which Christ was crucified. Later, during the Middle Ages, this stone was often used for treatment of blood poisoning and the healing of wounds.

The bloodstone, as a companion piece to the aquamarine as March's birthstone, is especially popular in men's rings, cuff links and is frequently carved with a crest or monogram.

"Russia's race to complete a broad-gauge railroad system through her satellite countries and Siberia is as plainly a bid for world power as her struggle for leadership in atomic energy development," said the Holyoke, Mass., Saturday Democrat recently.

The paper quoted from a speech by an American railroad official, in which it was pointed out that postwar development of Soviet railways has been undertaken at a feverish pitch. The rulers of Russia obviously realize that good rail transport-

Court Sees Sheriff Tippie To Win Case

PARIS, Tex. (AP)—There were raised eyebrows when Sheriff Dan Bills strolled out of Lamar County Court with a strong odor of whisky on his breath.

But it was in the line of duty. Bills was a witness in a bootlegging case in which 20 pints of whisky were introduced in evidence. A defense attorney asked the sheriff to test each pint to make sure it was really whisky.

It was. The defendant got 365 days in jail and a $200 fine.

tation is vital in either peace or war. Russia's railroads, with their varying gauges which make it necessary to frequently load and unload shipments at a tremendous waste of time and labor, have long been considered among the worst in Europe.

How long it will take Russia to produce a really adequate rail system remains to be seen. But we can profit by example from her strenuous efforts in that direction. It simply adds more evidence to the fact that, despite the growth of other kinds of transportation, the importance of railroads has not diminished one whit. To the contrary, it is greater now than it ever was. The other carriers perform valuable services—but in every case they are supplementary to the big, basic job done by the Iron Horse.

With about six per cent of the world's land area the U. S. has 29 per cent of the world's railroad trackage—the biggest and best railroad plant on earth.

The most powerful locomotives in the world run on North American tracks. You may be surprised to learn that the second most powerful engines are in Africa. A remarkable fact about these locomotives, the Beyer-Garratts, used by South African Railways, is that they develop a 90,000 pound pull, operating on a 3-foot 6-inch narrow gauge track!

Board Enacts Miracle, Change Day To Night

CHAPEL HILL, N. C. (AP)—The Board of Aldermen moved the clock for residents of Sunset Street here. The residents explained that they were tired of their street being confused with Sunset Drive.

The board changed the name to Starlite Street.

Because railway trains in Russia have no dining cars, Mrs. Perle Mesta, former United States minister to Luxembourg, took American canned goods with her everywhere she went on a two-month tour of the Soviet Union. Mrs. Mesta traveled 12,000 miles in the U.S.S.R., a more extensive coverage of the lands behind the Iron Curtain than has been granted to any non-official American visitor since the war. In London, she told reporters that she was shocked to see how people live under communism and was convinced that "the free world is the only place to live, the only place where you can say what you want to."

Leaders of men are accustomed to making far-sighted decisions. But sometimes they can be very wrong in their judgments, as illustrated in the cases of two of England's great men. The Duke of Wellington, who led victorious campaigns on many battlefields, said of railroad engines: "I see no reason to suppose that these machines will force themselves into general use." William Ewart Gladstone, outstanding statesman of the Victorian era, said: "I would no more trust the railway proprietors on railway matters than I would Gracchus speaking of sedition."

In contrast to this lack of vision as to the future of railroads is the prophetic confidence of one of the signers of the Declaration of Independence, Charles Carroll. He was the only signer of the Declaration alive when the first railroad in the

Dense Smoke Ruins Bee-Smokers Contest

HAZLETON, Pa. (AP)—There was a hot contest in the Bee Smoker competition at the 49th annual field day of the Pennsylvania Beekeepers' association.

The goal of the event was to see who could produce the greatest volume of smoke from a bee smoker—the traditional tool of the apiculturist.

No winner was announced — too much smoke.

United States to be built for public use was begun on July 4, 1828, at Baltimore, Md., and it was he who turned the first spadeful of sod. He stated that he considered his act second in importance only to his signing of the Declaration.

EDITOR TELLS "HOW TO HOLD" YOUR HUSBAND

By VIVIAN BROWN
AP Beauty Editor

A pretty breakfast outfit is more important than a frivolous hat in holding your husband. So says lovely Marjorie Reynolds, TV star, formerly of the movies, on a visit to New York. Says she:

"Women worry about owning cocktail dresses, evening gowns and pretty hats. But when it comes to morning clothes, they are willing to shuffle around in any old thing. An attractive breakfast wardrobe would go a long way in keeping romance alive."

Marjorie believes too many women concentrate on dressing for girl friends, neighbors and bridge party companions, instead of their husbands. She explains:

"Why do women break the bank to buy silly hats their husbands detest, just to impress Mrs. Jones? I used to make that mistake. But this shopping trip has been different. I spent a few dollars on a couple of smart hat-bar numbers and put the rest of my hat budget into a fancy nylon peignoir."

"Big Improvement"

Marjorie's husband, John Haffen, a Hollywood picture cutter and former movie star, grinned and confirmed his wife's opinion that the frothy negligee was a big improvement over her old tired bathrobe.

Marjorie, the glamorous Mom of "The Life of Riley" TV show, thinks every wife should look so attractive at breakfast that her husband hates to go to work. She suggests that hair and face should be completely groomed and that sloppy bedroom slippers be discarded in favor of dainty high-heeled footgear. John interrupts to say:

"Thank heavens Marjorie isn't the morning curlers type."

"Curlers ruin lots of marriages."

Ag Law Calls Goats From Lebanon Hills

BEIRUT (P)—Goat control is the aim of a new bill being drawn up by Lebanon's Ministry of Agriculture.

To promote a forestation program on the nearly-bare Lebanon Mountains, Minister of Agriculture Kazem El Khali has proposed a law curtailing the goats. He calls them the greatest enemies of its forests.

Proposed is a slow transfer from goats, first, to the less-destructive sheep, and finally from sheep to cattle.

says Marjorie. "A woman would have been appalled in courtship days if her swain saw her in an ugly hair rig. But as soon as she gets her man, she lets herself go." Women miss a good bet if they don't breakfast with their husbands. And every smart woman, according to Marjorie, should plan a half-hour relaxation session with her husband before dinner. Says she:

"Even if you don't drink cocktails, sit down and have a glass of fruit juice with him while he sips his before-dinner aperitif. If he doesn't imbibe, serve the first course — cheese and crackers, soup, juice or whatever — in the living room. Try to wean your husband from the idea that dinner should be waiting on the table when he gets home."

After bleaching her hair for fifteen years, Marjorie finally let the grey through. Her husband loves it and it hasn't hurt her television popularity. The fans still write in to tell her she's much too young to be Ma Riley.

It's much smarter to act your age, she says. Older girls are having a heyday, she reminds us. The loveliest women in Hollywood include Irene Dunne, Joan Crawford, Marlene Dietrich, and movie stars of their era. Marjorie thinks that women in those days applied common sense to their beauty program, instead of stressing "oomph the fleeting quality of frivolous youth, so popular today."

MEXICANS LIKE SHRINE AT R. R.

MEXICO CITY (P)—Catholics crossing a railroad track in a Mexico City suburb make the sign of the cross and sometimes drop coins in a nearby box. It's not reverence for the railroad, but for a picture of the Virgin Mary painted on an electric relay box.

The quaint shrine shows how seriously Mexicans take their religion. A watchman painted the picture. The railroad approved, and permitted a sheet metal roof, flowers, a collection box, even electric lights. The devout come to pray. Although a century-old church is a block away, the little shrine brings in more money, most of which goes to the church. The rest goes to maintain the shrine.

Other everyday things bring home to newcomers the fact that religion is a vital part of Mexico's daily existence. Instead of cheese-cake art in a taxi there is a colored picture of the Virgin Mary, or a tiny altar attached to the dashboard. Elevators have tiny shrines.

Upset Agnostic
In one of the largest newspaper plants, men of the various departments competed to see which could erect the most elaborate shrine. The photo boys probably won, with a neon-framed altar that takes up half the space in their department. It is decorated daily with fresh flowers.

Even stubborn Diego Rivera, the famed Mexican painter and an acknowledged agnostic, couldn't buck Mexican religion.

In a theater mural, he put a figure of the Virgin of Guadalupe—Mexico's patron saint—on a movie comedian's coat. Catholics said this was sacrilegious and threatened boycott. The theater's owner, however, prevailed on Rivera—who has rarely backed down to criticism or public demand—to eliminate the controversial figure.

Sheriff Nabs G-Man Operating Hootch Car

GREENSBORO, N. C. (P)—Deputy Sheriff Thurman Jones boasts that he can spot a liquor car every time by its overloaded springs, oversize tires and powerful engine. But he admits he isn't so good at sizing up the drivers.

He ordered one car to stop and the driver asked:

"What do you want me for?"

"This looks like a liquor car," Thurman replied.

"It is," the driver admitted. He pulled out his federal agent's badge. "We picked it up and I'm taking it in."

HOME-SEWN LEATHER WEAR EASY TO MAKE

By DOROTHY ROE
Women who have coveted the high-priced luxury of soft suede jackets and other leather coats are discovering that, with a little care, it's easy and thrifty to make them at home.

Leather now is available to the home seamstress, so that anyone who can run a sewing machine can make a whole leather wardrobe if she likes, at a fraction of store prices.

Suede Ensemble
One of the most versatile and striking leather styles is a brief suede or kid jacket worn with a dress or tweed skirt in matching tone, for a town or travel team. The jacket is made from a standard pattern, featuring high-style lantern sleeves, stand-up collar and link-button closing. The very brief jacket is an important note in spring styles, suggesting the high-waisted Empire silhouette, closely fitted through the midriff. Push-up sleeves call for 8-button length suede gloves. Local sewing center experts point out that sewing with leather demands a completely different technique from sewing on fabric. The primary difference lies in the cutting, since leather is available in skins which are irregularly shaped, and seldom more than a yard square. Leather, however, has no straight or bias, and it stretches. Rubber cement is used when a facing should be blind-stitched, and weights are used instead of pins wherever possible. It is essential to adjust the pattern before cutting, for leather seams cannot be let out once they have been stitched.

Men Like Leather
Once you have learned the technique of stitching on leather, you will find many items which adapt well to it. A leather skirt is indestructible and looks wonderful with a leather jacket or tailored shirt.

Men love leather, and are enthusiastic about vests with leather fronts and cloth backs. Accessories are endless, and include belts, hats, bags, gloves, collars and numerous gift items such as spectacle cases and tobacco pouches. Many of these articles may be created with scraps left from making larger garments.

HISTORIANS FIND HINT OF HIGH INDIAN CULTURE

CALHOUN, Ga. (P)—Ruins of Echota, long lost capital of the Cherokee nation, may soon emerge from a cotton field. Dr. Henry Malone of the University of Georgia says the lost city is believed to represent a high civilization comparable to those of the Incas and Mayas.

Malone will lead archaeologists to a site revealed by strange lines traced on an air-survey picture.

After long study of Cherokee records he says, "These were not a people of teepees." New Echota was one of the last sanctuaries of a free and independent Indian tribe within the United States. The Cherokees had a republican form of government, published a newspaper and levied taxes.

Built In 1825
Although New Echota was built about 1825, no one now knows just where it was.

In the 1700s when frontiersmen were spilling over the mountains, the Cherokees fought them. During the Revolution the Indians sided with the British.

Afterward the angry Americans pushed them back into the mountainous corners of northwest Georgia, northeast Alabama, east Tennessee, and western North Carolina.

There they lived peacefully for several years, advancing in culture and in commerce. Then, about 1817, they refused to make any more land concessions to the white men.

Development
Between that time and 1835, when they were driven to the West, the Cherokees developed remarkably.

New Echota became the center of their nation. There their bicameral legislature assembled and their supreme court judged cases appealed from the tribal circuit courts.

Their newspaper, the Cherokee Phoenix, published in the 86 characters of the Cherokee language, circulated through the Piedmont.

Stern Governors
White missionaries settled in Cherokee territory, but the Cherokees must have been stern taskmasters. A Cherokee chief once notified the Moravians that they would be ejected from the nation unless they built a school for the Indians.

"They must have been more interested in the 'Three R's' than in the Trinity," Malone concludes.

A wealthy Indian farmer named Joe Vann, who lived in a handsome brick house still standing, is said to have owned 110 slaves. The Cherokees sided with Amer-

SAN DIEGO, Calif. (P)—The classified advertisement in The Evening Tribune read: "Edward Drake. I found your ring."

In 1835, the State of Georgia extended its authority over the Cherokee territory and drove the once-proud people out—with the assent of the man in the White House, Andrew Jackson.

REP. VAN ZANDT SAYS LOGJAM IS BROKEN ON H-BOMB WORK

By RUSSELL BRINES

WASHINGTON (AP)—Rep. Van Zandt (R-Pa.) said today American scientists have broken through a logjam in the development of hydrogen and atomic power, and that the achievement points to accelerated development of both weapons and civilian power.

He gave no details. His prediction followed these disclosures:

1. Members of the Senate-Atomic Energy Committee confirmed that a preliminary hydrogen explosion March 1 in the Pacific was three or four times heavier than scientists expected. Van Zandt estimated its power at 600 times that of the Hiroshima atom bomb, the first one used in warfare.

2. Being Stockpiled

2. Informed sources who declined to be named said the United States now is stockpiling hydrogen bombs that could be delivered anywhere in the world. This followed a statement by Rep. W. Sterling Cole (R-NY) Tuesday night that this country has a deliverable hydrogen bomb. President Eisenhower asked at his news conference about Cole's statement. Cole is chairman of the Senate-Atomic Energy Committee, and Van Zandt is a member.

3. Military officials gave an Atomic Energy subcommittee yesterday what members called a

TEEN TALK

By VIVIAN BROWN

The Associated Press

"We want more new lingo" writes a Missouri column fan who wants to be the first to spring new vernacular on her group. So here goes:

At Washington High School, Sioux Falls, S. D. young people have some interesting favorite expressions, such as:

Who Goofed? — (Whose mistake?)

Snards, Gruzses — (dead beats.)

Hogging Cars — (Car Hopping.)

Then parties are called "slumber parties" because the boys usually crash. ("Match me up" parties are popular with dates dressing in the same colors — easier for the girls to match their beaux our informant says.)

Miami young people keep their teachers agog with their lingo says Sanford Schiner, of the Miami Daily News. He offers these "cool expressions":

"Flake out" — Too much study is tiring.

"Browse me on the scene" — Request for information.

"Pull a boo boo" — Make an error.

"Racking up the Brownie points" — Teacher's pet.

"Toe Dancers" — High school sissies.

"Calories" — Plump girls.

"Fluffs" — Fat boys.

Other expressions include: "King size, you steam me," "Snow again, Daddy, I don't get the drift," "What kind of corn was that — creamed style," "My excuse is fleas, what's yours?"

Detroit, Mich., teen talk is said to be garnished with sprigs of musician's bop talk and southern drawl, basted with phrases from radio programs . . .

"Strictly lush" — Describes fashion.

ions.

"Dollie" — A date.

"Are you dealing tonight?" — Asking for a date.

"What was your first clue?" — Reply to a date turn-down.

"Birds" — The crowd.

"Let's cool it down to the pad" — Saunter down to a hangout.

"Baddest dog" — A fine lad in smart togs.

Aberdeen, S. D., guys and dolls come up with these:

"Skunk" — A two-tone kitty with fluid drive.

"Butch," "Champ," "Ace," "Sport," — Salutations.

Sometimes Aberdeen, S. D., kids talk in mule language . . .

Waving the hands over the head — "Taking a trip over the week-end."

Snapping the fingers in the air — "A butterfly with hiccups."

Forked fingers held in front of the face and blinking one eye is a "Cadillac making a left turn."

Placing the hands palm down and horizontally pushing one hand up defines a "spider doing pushups on a mirror."

PARKING LAW HAS TOOTH

DAVENPORT, Iowa (AP)—The police desk sergeant just laughed when a motorist displayed his overtime parking ticket and complained he'd been tied up at the dentist's office.

Then the motorist carefully unwrapped a handkerchief and displayed an extracted tooth as evidence. He pointed, too, to his swollen jaw.

The ticket was excused.

Wagner, N.Y. Mayor, Wants 'Jr.' Off Name

NEW YORK (AP)—The Democratic part in New York now has one less "junior."

Rep. Franklin D. Roosevelt Jr., a potential candidate for governor next year, still holds to the title.

But Mayor Robert F. Wagner Jr. of New York has announced that he wants to be known simply as Mayor Robert F. Wagner. His father was the New Deal Senator for whom the Wagner Act was named.

The broadcasts also speak of: Poor leadership; antiquated farming methods; inability to get over the Communist idea because the masses are uneducated; hostility of "middle peasants" who have experienced the role of "private owners;" peasant dislike of force; the necessity of making "low interest loans" and offering other government inducements; a tendency toward corruption in distributing the earnings under a collectivized system.

GOP HOLDS SLIM MARGIN NOW IN FIGHT ON TAXES

By CHARLES F. BARRETT
WASHINGTON (P)—House Republicans apparently held a slim and shifting margin of votes today against a Democratic drive for an additional $2,000,000,000 annual income tax cut.

Key Democrats, conceding the odds were now against them, planned a last-ditch fight for their proposal to increase income tax exemptions for each taxpayer and each dependent by $100.

They are battling to tack that proposal onto a general tax revision bill now before the House. The bill would overhaul almost all tax laws and provide $1,397,000,000 in revenue cuts next year through many more liberal deductions for businesses and individuals.

See Roll Call Late Today
Republican leaders stuck firmly to a prediction that the move to boost exemptions would be beaten in a showdown roll-call vote late today. President Eisenhower strongly opposes an exemption increase, terming it a political maneuver.

Both sides said there was no doubt the big, 875-page general revision bill would pass, although some Democrats bitterly attacked parts of it.

Rep. Presist (D-Tenn.), acting Democratic whip, forecast a very close decision on the exemption increase but conceded "the odds have shifted toward the Republicans. I'd say if there's any advantage at all it's more on their side." The House has 219 Republicans, 215 Democrats and 1 independent.

May Be Election Issue
Two Democrats on the tax-writing House Ways and Means Committee, who are in the thick of the fight, said privately they expect Democrats to lose the battle over exemptions. But they said the party would press the issue in the Senate and in congressional election campaigns this fall.

In five hours of heated debate yesterday, Democrats hammered away at their theme that the GOP-sponsored revision program is loaded with huge benefits for corporations and wealthy stockholders

Says Parisians Live In A 'State Of Sin'

PARIS (P)—Because of the housing shortage, 500,000 Parisians, or 12 per cent of the metropolitan population, live in hotel rooms, according to Deputy Leo Hamon, who said:

"One of the disasters resulting from this situation is the large nation which supports such a situation in a permanent state of sin."

with only scattered and light relief for the great majority of people in lower income brackets.

They insisted the exemption increase is vital to make the tax program fair to all, and to help increase consumer buying power and pull the nation out of the current economic dip.

Deny Favoritism
Republicans denied favoritism in the revision program and said all taxpayers would benefit. They said the revenue loss from the proposed exemption increase would "utterly destroy the government's financial stability."

Secretary of the Treasury Humphrey took up verbal cudgels for the Eisenhower administration's tax program in a letter to House Speaker Martin (R-Mass). He said:

"I feel as strongly as I can that it is in the long run interests of the American people that this bill be enacted substantially in its present form."

There's Humor In The News

HOUSTON, Tex. (P)—Here's a tip for officers who serve subpoenas and folks who are served with them.

Deputy U. S. Marshal Ellis Binford works it this way:
When a secretary asks him to wait, Binford pulls a newspaper printed in Arabic out of his pocket. After glancing at it, he appears to spot an item of terrific interest and starts making strange, excited noises.

Usually the secretary rushes to tell her boss about the strange man. The boss comes out to see him and Binford serves the subpoena.

EMPIRE, Ore. (P)—Rusty, a cocker spaniel owned by Warren Murphy of Empire, is a dog-gone good substitute for a fire prevention crew.

You can't drop a lighted cigarette or cigar and walk away when Rusty is around. Murphy has trained the dog to combat such carelessness, and he does it effectively if sometimes perilously.

The dog will immediately pounce on the stub and bat it with its forepaws. If that doesn't extinguish the stub, Rusty then rolls on it, picks it up in his mouth and, after proper saliva treatment, spits it out.

ARRAS, France (P)—Think flying saucers are new? Found in archives in this northern French city was the report that on a November night: "was seen in the sky a brilliant object somewhat like an iron bar, long and large as half the moon. It was clearly seen for 15 minutes then suddenly the strange object began to rise in spirals, to twist and writhe like a watch spring and disappear in the sky."

The report was written in 1461.

PITTSBURGH (P)—On his ninth wedding anniversary, the prisoner took his problem to the jailer, who went to the judge. Sure, said the judge, get the man's wife on the phone and read the loving message. It went this way:

"Happy greetings on this, our ninth anniversary. I am terribly lonely, as there are only eight lovely women with me. But don't worry, the tipstaff is watching me. Take the $20 out of my pants pocket and

Swede Experiments With 2-Lb. Apples

STOCKHOLM (P)—Ever seen an apple weighing two pounds? In a few years it may be a familiar sight in the Swedish fruitmarkets. After 17 years of experimenting, Swedish Scientist Emil Johansson has succeeded in doubling the chromosomes of diploid apples and produced a tetraploid one - a giant, high quality apple weighing nearly two pounds.

He has been able for some time to grow big apples, but the quality was poor. Now he has solved the problem of combining size and quality.

Ike And Dulles Have Cleared Air On Military "New Look"

By JAMES MARLOW
WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower and Secretary of State Dulles have had five tries at explaining the administration's "new look" in defense. Now maybe the questions about it will subside a while.

Putting together what the two men said—Eisenhower in two news conferences and Dulles in a speech, a news conference and a magazine article—the "new look" seems to come down to this:

Any enemy attack will be met in a way and with weapons that fit the situation. By not giving flat answers now to every possible situation, the U.S. government keeps the other side guessing.

Raised Some Questions
But statements by Eisenhower and Dulles already have caused guessing in the non-Communist world too.

Dulles began the puzzlement in a Jan. 12 speech in which he said this country's defense would depend primarily upon "massive" power to retaliate "instantly" at a time and place chosen by this country.

The words "massive" and "instantly" conjured up visions of counterattack. Did he mean an atomic attack on China if the Red Chinese moved into Indochina against the French?

Ike Takes Stand
If Russia in such a case came to China's assistance, as she probably would, that meant World War III. How would American allies feel about an attack on China that would plunge them into world war?

At his news conference last week Eisenhower was asked: Would this country get into war if a few American troops, now in Indochina servicing, not in flying French planes, were killed?

The President shot back this:

FAMILY SHOULD INCLUDE FUN WITH DAILY MEAL

By DOROTHY V. WHITTLE, M.D.
The Associated Press

Did you ever sit at a dinner table where a foreign language you couldn't understand was spoken?

It's an unpleasant experience, especially if you know the people present CAN speak English. First you are bored, then perhaps you become worried that things are being said about you.

That's the way a child feels when the dinner table conversation is all over his head.

A child is apt not to be as polite as you might be under similar circumstances. He feels uncomfortable and left out and is pretty apt to so.

But then he began to make exceptions: for instance, if the United States were attacked by air, American reaction would have to be swift and perhaps could not wait on Congress.

Boiled down, this is what he said: You have to do one thing in one situation, something else in another.

"do something" to improve the situation from his point of view.

Attract Attention
Young Pat discovered that slouching in his chair, messing with his food and not eating were quite successful methods of attracting adult attention.

Mother interrupted Daddy to tell Pat to eat, then Daddy began scolding Pat for being so sloppy. Pat didn't especially like being scolded but even scolding was better than just not being noticed at all.

Pat also discovered that if he did what Mother and Daddy told him to do—eat his meal decently—that the grownups went back to their big talk and he began feeling mean all over again. The only way Pat knew to be part of the family was to act so that he got scolded.

If the children are coming to the family table it is only courteous to include them in the conversation. Mother and Dad can wait until later to discuss politics or business or what have you.

Family Center
Nowhere in a household is the atmosphere of family life more obvious than around the dinner table.

A family that comes to the table, happy, hungry (and relatively clean), and sits down to good food and pleasant talk, has one of the priceless blessings of this world.

Save up little anecdotes of the day—mother's run-in with the grocer, the little boy with the huge dog Dad saw this morning. Encourage the children to relate their day's events. If your supply runs out, read up on a few "little moron" stories or other jokes to tell.

Then there are always games to play: "I'm thinking of something red and round . . ." Watch what a difference it makes in your children. Good food disappears down eager mouths when children are happy. No nagging about "eat your carrots." In fact, a good rule is "no remarks about the food except nice ones."

A child who is bored at the table is apt to act up in order to relieve his boredom. A child who is only spoken to at the table to be told

FIND MISSING WOMAN'S AUTO

HONESDALE, Pa. (AP)—The discovery of a new car parked on the shoreline of Big Hickory Lake in a remote section near this north-eastern Pennsylvania town has touched off a search for a missing New York state woman.

State police said the car, a 1954 Pontiac Catalina, was owned by Miss Gladys Alice Mueller, 24, of Marcellus, Onondaga County, N. Y. Miss Mueller was reported missing March 12.

A pair of woman's shoes were found outside the car yesterday. Inside the car police found a heavy cloth coat and a purse containing a "sizeable amount" of money.

The new car had been driven only 274 miles.

Police said further investigation disclosed two empty iodine bottles on the floor of the car.

The Onondaga County sheriff's office reported Miss Mueller has been in poor health and was under doctor's care when she disappeared.

State police said they will continue an intensive search for the woman.

French Reading Less Recent Figures Show

PARIS (AP)—The French are supposedly an intellectual people but spend only 14 cents a year for books, compared to an average $7 spent by Americans.

This figure is given by the trade publication "L'Echo de la presse et de la Publicité," which blames the book trade crisis on "the radio, movies, television and sports."

Telephone Girl Helps Police Make Arrest

SANFORD, N. C. (AP)—A telephone off the hook led to the arrest of two men in a burglary at the Lee County High School. Miss Frances Fore, a telephone operator, saw a signal and plugged in. Nothing happened, so she listened. She heard someone say:

"There's nothing in this drawer. Let's open the other one."

It was 5 a.m. She called police who arrested the two men at the school.

Sen. McCarthy Challenges His Critics In Fighting Speech

By JOHN CHADWICK

CHICAGO (AP)—Sen. McCarthy (R-Wis.) today challenged critics of his Red-hunting methods—from President Eisenhower down—to name any Communists they have exposed.

The controversial chairman of the Senate investigations subcommittee, cheered on by a St. Patrick's Day dinner gathering last night, pledged a no-quarter fight to dig out "Communist traitors."

In the face of indirect criticism from Eisenhower and other top leaders of his party, he bluntly said he didn't give "a tinker's dam" if people in either the Republican or Democratic party—no matter how high or how low—were "unhappy" about his methods.

No Effective Alternative
"This fight is going on as long as I am in the United States Senate," he said, touching off a burst of applause.

Eisenhower, in a news conference yesterday, deplored the effects of "unwise investigators." He also said recently that in the fight against communism "we are defeating ourselves if... we use methods that do not conform to the American sense of justice and fair play."

McCarthy, in the first of four speeches in a quick swing through the Midwest, said there are some who say it's all right to dig out Communists, "but, oh, we don't like your methods." He said critics of his subcommittee's methods have not, however, suggested any effective alternative.

More Speeches Ahead
"When you hear them crying that they don't like the methods," he added, "I suggest that you ask them when and where they ever exposed a Communist by their methods."

He was scheduled to address another group here today and then leave for Milwaukee, where he will speak Friday night. He has another speech scheduled in Oklahoma City Saturday night.

Just before he started his broadcast address to some 1,200 members and guests of the Irish Fellowship Club here last night, one man called out: "Give 'em hell, Joe; you're in your own ballpark now."

Quotes Reds
McCarthy evidently felt he was as he fired back at critics of his investigating methods and also carried on his controversy with Army Secretary Robert T. Stevens.

Referring to Stevens, the senator said, "I didn't start the fight but I think maybe I'll have to finish it." He also quoted from what he called the "main report" to the national conference of the American Communist party last September, saying it urged Communists to promote fights between him and Eisenhower in the hope of destroying them both.

A Communist party spokesman in New York said the document contained no such instructions to party members. He called McCarthy's statement "nonsense."

But McCarthy contended it laid down "the party line," adding it admonished Communists to stir up fights between him and the administration and to be as rough as possible on him but to take care at the same time not to praise Eisenhower.

It said, in effect, he said, that "we have to take care of him (Eisenhower) later." McCarthy said he was going to

JOHNSON WINS SPLIT VERDICT OVER ANDREWS

CHICAGO (AP)—A light heavyweight title showdown between Harold Johnson and champion Archie Moore was shaping up today for the challenger's hometown, Philadelphia, this summer.

Johnson, 25, snapped out of a first-round knockdown to win a split decision over impressive Paul Andrews, 24, of Buffalo in Chicago Stadium last night.

In winning his 48th start in 53 bouts, Johnson had trouble working into Andrews, who at 6-3 towered over him and outboxed him in punches by several inches. Andrews, an ex-paratrooper, outwitted Johnson by three pounds, 179 to 176.

Aside from the mandatory eight count knockdown in the opener of the nationally televised 10-rounder Johnson was a clever, sharp boxer who threw four times as many punches as his somewhat cautious opponent and handled himself up to expectations of his No. 1 ranking as a contender.

Andrews, displaying a deft left hook and sneaky right, crashed home the left in the first and Johnson went down.

"I thought it was a right," Johnson said afterwards. "Those ring lights seemed awfully bright and I had to look up to that tall Andrews. The lights blinded me." Johnson's date with Moore, whom

TOOTH DECAY CURTAILED

CHICAGO (AP)—Incorporating antibiotics into dental cements and resins used to fill teeth apparently could help prevent decay later on underneath fillings, a dental study finds. Cavities are difficult to sterilize completely after decayed parts are drilled out, hence the later decay. Some types of filling have a germ-killing action, and this is stepped up by adding antibiotics to them, Dr. Maxwell B. Colton and Eugene Ehrlich of New York write in the Journal of the American Dental Association.

He has met four times, may be in late June or early July. "Moore still wants a $100,000 guarantee," said Johnson.

The collection goes as far back as the semi-legendary Chou Dynasty (1122-225 B.C.) and records the different kinds of currency used in China for more than 2,300 years. Worth about $134,000, it contains more than 100,000 specimens of cloth, gold, silver, copper and paper money.

BENSON MAY BE NEXT TO COME UNDER FIRE OF SEN. M'CARTHY

By JACK BELL

WASHINGTON (AP)—Agents of Sen. McCarthy (R-Wis.) have been quietly checking the Department of Agriculture and Secretary Benson's agency soon may be brought under the Wisconsin senator's fire.

McCarthy, now on a Midwestern speaking tour, has announced he wants to make a farm speech in the Senate.

It may be the kickoff in a campaign against some of the aspects of the flexible farm price support program put before Congress by Benson with President Eisenhower's support.

Has Angered McCarthy
Investigation by the staff of McCarthy's subcommittee of alleged Communists who may be in the department could blossom at almost any time into hearings like those conducted into some of the Army's affairs.

Benson's action in announcing a cut in dairy price supports from the present level of 90 per cent to 75 per cent on April 1 has angered McCarthy and many of his dairy farm constituents in Wisconsin.

Farm Speech Coming

McCarthy's attitude toward Benson—as expressed to the Wisconsin senator's friends—is that the cabinet member is a fine, upstanding gentleman whose ideas and speeches are likely to cost the Republicans Senate and House seats in the Middle West.

In the farm speech he hopes to make soon in the Senate, McCarthy is expected to call for a flexible system of price supports ranging from 85 to 110 per cent of parity. Parity is a standard set by law to give farmers a fair return for their products in relation to the things they buy.

Marine Officer Finds Goat In Lady's Room

CHERRY POINT, N. C. (AP)—

Warrant Officer L. W. Reed wasn't sure he heard correctly. "Would you repeat that?" he asked. "I said, there's a goat in our barracks and could you please do something about it!"

Reed feared a practical joke. But he dispatched MP's. They arrived in time to rescue a Woman

Marine from a refuge atop lockers in her barracks. They were too late to prevent damage to her blue jeans. And they removed the goat.

CAPE GIRARDEAU, Mo. (AP)—A local banker admitted the other day that his establishment has two sets of signatures for many depositors—one when they're sober and the other, well, it's more alive in time to rescue a Woman

Renter Offers Bonds For Tenant's Babies

SEATTLE (AP)—A Seattle apartment house has reversed traditions and urged its tenants to have babies — even offered a $25 defense bond to each new baby.

An additional bond will go to babies named after the apartment — the Grosvenor. Double money also will be paid for twins.

For triplets? Triple money — and an eviction notice, the management says with tongue in cheek. (PS: But some of those bachelor units are pretty small for a family of five).

Closely Allied Babes On Hospital Roster

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. (AP)—Confusion had a chance to reign — but didn't — when these entries were noted on the birth list at St. Vincent's Infirmary here recently:

Mrs. R. E. Dougherty, Little Rock — a boy.

Mrs. R. V. Dougherty, North Little Rock — a girl.

The families aren't related.
